WRIT PETITION NO.9465 OF 2006

O R D E R (Per the Hon'ble Sri Justice L.Narasimha Reddy):

This writ petition is taken up as public interest litigation on a representation made to the Hon'ble Chief Justice. The complaint of the petitioners is that their respective husbands and two others have been detained by the Station House Officer, Alur Police Station and in spite of repeated requests they have not been released.

The learned Advocate General took notice and filed a counter-affidavit. From a perusal of the counter-affidavit, it is evident that alleged detenu Nos.1 to 3 have been arrested on 08-05-2006 at 12.45 hours in Crime No.19 of 2006 of Alur Police Station and were produced before the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Alur. The learned Judicial Magistrate of First Class is said to have remanded them to judicial custody for fifteen days and that they have since been lodged in Sub-Jail, Adoni. So far as detenu No.4 is concerned, it is represented that he is not required in any case and that he is moving freely.

In that view of the matter, the writ petition is dismissed.
